SPENDS $780 ON FOWLS FOR ST. BAVO'S FAIR

The big event of the year in Belgian circles is the annual fair which has been established for many years and which is looked forward to with unusual interest. It is held in connection with St. Bavo's church of which Rev. A. Schockaert is the pastor. Monday night it will open at St. Bavo's hall amid a scene of gaiety, in which most of the members of the Belgian colony will participate, and will continue for the remainder of the week, closing Saturday night. The program will be of a diversified nature and will embrace many numbers of a unique and entertaining character. The pastor stated Saturday that he had already purchased turkeys and other fowl for the event which in money amounted to $780. These will be given away in competitions of various kinds during the week. Many of the citizens from all parts of the city will undoubtedly attend St. Bavo's fair.

BULGARS ARE NOW IN CONTROL OF MONASTIR

that Italian troops have arrived at Skopje, it is hardly conceivable that the Italian troops will consent to the sacrifice of these forces, and it would only be a sacrifice if they were sent forward to Serbia. The Anglo-French troops already there have been checked at every point by the Bulgarians, who will be released for an offensive campaign against that enemy as soon as the Serbian army is destroyed.

Germany is so confident that the Balkan campaign will soon end that preparations for an active offensive on another front by the Austro-German forces are being made. The entire, according to reports received here, expect this offensive on the west front believing that the Germans will make another attempt to break through Paris.

Shortage in the Turkey Crop is Reported.

A busy morning was spent on the city market Saturday, with prices ranging around marks set earlier in the week. Ducks were the principal feature in the large stocks brought in by more than 40 wagons.

Eggs ranged in price from 35 to 40 cents, with butter 35 cents. Nice canned fruit were selling at remarkably low prices and oranges and apples were in the market proper. Baked goods were in many varieties were in evidence.

Young women of the Baptist Missionary society conducted a very successful baked sale, clearing their stock of many baked pies and cakes at an early hour.

The market will be open Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, owing to Thanksgiving coming on Thursday, the second market day of the week.

This fact no doubt accounts for the scarcity of turkeys Saturday, although it is held a great many will have to be satisfied with duck and chicken, owing to a shortage in the turkey crop.
